

The Journal of Louisiana Ornithology is published on-line annually by the Louisiana Ornithological Society. Address business correspondence to: Secretary-Treasurer Judith O'Neale, 504 Whitebark Lane, Lafayette, LA 70508. The Editor is Jennifer O. Coulson. Manuscripts are solicited on any aspect of Louisiana ornithology, or on any issue which is pertinent to an understanding of the birdlife of Louisiana. Articles, news, and notes from the field, and literature reviews may address questions of identification, seasonal, or geographic distribution, behavior, ecology, conservation, or related matters. Articles submitted are expected to be the original work of the authors and shall not have been published elsewhere. Manuscripts containing research results will be reviewed by one or more referees. Manuscripts must be type-written on good quality 8.5" x 11" paper, with ample margins and double-spaced throughout, including literature citations, tables, and captions to figures. All photographs, graphics, line drawings, or half-tones must be provided in high quality digital form. Full color photographs and artwork are welcomed and may be suggested as cover art. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts on computer discs or as email attachments in Microsoft Word. Inquiries should be directed to the editors. Authors should adhere to the style of The Auk. Scientific and common names must follow the A.O.U. Checklist and its supplements. Manuscripts should be sent to the Editor: Jennifer O. Coulson, The Journal of Louisiana Ornithology, 64340 Fogg Lane, Pearl River, LA 70452, Email: Jacoulson@aol.com.