

Species: White-tailed hawk (Buteo albicaudatus)

State: LA Parish or County: Jefferson Davis

Locality: Lands. Rd on power line next to west side of road

Date: 12/8 19 96 No. seen: 1

Observers: Karen Fay, David Narins + Laura (?)

Documentation: sight record (); photo (); specimen (); heard only ()

Notes
Significance: Textbook adult bird - observed gray crown, face

+ upper back, chestnut shoulders, white underparts, white tail

w/ ^{subterminal} black band observed in flight

For unusual records, give details on reverse side return from winter 95-96

Species: White-tailed Hawk
State: LA Parish or County: Jeff Davis
Locality: double power poles near landfill near Welsh Date: 5 December 19 96 No. seen: 1 ad.
Observers: on this date → Matt & Gary Pontiff Documentation: sight record (); photo (); specimen (); heard only () Significance: _____

For unusual records, give details on reverse side

LA 96-97

- head gray

- back gray

- reddish-brown scapulars

- tail white with black band

- breast white

Species: White-tailed Hawk
State: Louisiana Parish or County: Jeff Davis Par.
Locality: Landfill Road-
Date: 11/30 19 96 No. seen: 1 adult Observers: DAVID MORTY Documentation: sight record (x); photo (); specimen (); heard only () Significance: exact location as the bird found last December by Cardiff & Diltman

over

For unusual records, give details on reverse side

A perched buteo - approx-Red-tailed size - dark above, white below, with distinct Chestnut "shoulder" visible on perched bird. Very distinct face pattern - dark/light contrast. No wells, band below.

Portion of tail visible white with black sub-terminal band.

Perched on same power pole as last year's bird -

-D.M.

wings on perched bird rouger than tail.